Scott,

It was very nice meeting you today in court - thank you for having so much patience with the process (I truly appreciate it).

Attached is the complete signed OSC I am sending you on behalf of your client Tara Crescent. As discussed in chambers, if you refuse to accept service on behalf of your client, can you please provide me with an address for her so I may overnight a copy of the pleadings.

In addition, I, or someone from my office, will go to Judge Hellerstein on Tuesday morning to provide him with the original OSC (which Judge Ramos gave back to me today because the court was closed). I do not think anyone from your office needs to be there but tell me if you would like to coordinate a time to meet at court.

I am always available to discuss this case in an effort to amicably and expeditiously resolve the issues. I think if we sat down and discussed same we could come up with a resolution that makes sense for all sides and the writing community in general.

I remain available to discuss the case at anytime via my cell (347-309-0000).

Pleadings to follow in a separate email.

Very truly yours,
Chris Cardillo, Esq.
